Historical Note

This poem "Tulip Tree" was written by Martin Riley, 602 South Meridian Street, Room 3, Indianapolis, Indiana.

Scope and Contents

The poem entitled "Tulip Tree" is written in pencil on a single sheet, thus:

A flower grows within the woods upon a tulip tree Blooming near the end of Spring a joyful sight to see.

Petals of the palest green Crowned by crest of orange flame rarest blossom ever seen Tulip poplar is its name.
